

Wall Family Genealogy by William (Bill) Dale Wall

My Wall family goes back to at least 1787. That was the year that my great-great-grandfather, William Wall, was born. His grave, which can be found in the Faubion Cemetery on Good Hope Road in Parrottsville (Cocke County), Tennessee, is marked 1787 to September 4, 1857. He lived to 70 years old. He was most likely born in North Carolina, but one source (Betty Wall) says he was born in Scotland. Perhaps his family was born in Scotland. Also, a Methodist Church record has his name as William Bryson Wall, Sr. and his son's name was William Bryson, Wall, Jr.

In 1810, William Wall settled in Shelby, Cleveland County (later Rutherford County in 1841) North Carolina.

On April 26, 1812, William Wall married Nancy (unknown last name) in Shelby, Rutherford (now Cleveland as of 1841) County, North Carolina. He would have been 24 and she would have been around 19. Her grave is located in the Faubion Cemetery. She was born in 1792 and died on March 25, 1842, aged 49 or 50. Their children were William Bryson Wall, Oliver Perry Wall (1824-1896), Jesse J. Wall (1831-1916), and another boy. Census show that they also had 5 daughters.

On April 26, 1821, William Bryson Wall (1821-1904), my great-great grandfather, was born in Shelby, Rutherford County, NC. The parents were William and Nancy Wall.

On December 4, 1824, Oliver Perry Wall was born in Rutherford County, NC.

On October 1, 1825, Louisa C. Hudson was born in Cocke County, TN. She later married William Bryson Wall in 1843.

In 1830, the only Walls mentioned in Rutherford County, NC were Amos Wall and Hartwell Wall. There was a William Walls. In the 1830 Johnston County, NC, census, there is a William Wall, Sr, William B. Wall, Perry Wall, along with Aaron Wall, Benet Wall, Bennett Wall, Jesse Wall, John Wall, and Jonathan T Wall.

On September 3, 1831, Jesse J. Wall was born in Rutherford County, NC. (one source, including a newspaper article, says he was born in Tennessee and that his parents were William Wall and Nancy Faubion - <https://www.legis.iowa.gov/docs/publications/HD/922531.pdf>)

In 1833, the Wall clan left Rutherford County (in 1841 this part of Rutherford County became Cleveland County), NC and settled in Parrottsville, Cocke County, Tennessee, 135 miles from Shelby, NC

In 1840, William Wall was listed in the 1840 Cocke County Census, roll 518, page 266. It listed William Wall and wife with 2 boys and 4 girls (but William Wall had 3 boys – William Bryson, Oliver Perry, and Jesse J Wall).

On March 25, 1842, Nancy Wall (1792-1842), wife of William Wall (1787-1857), died in Parrottsville. She is buried in the Faubion cemetery on Good Hope Road, 2 miles northeast of Parrottsville (close to Baltimore). Her grave may be the oldest grave in the cemetery. The cemetery is affectionately known as “Forbees” by the locals. The cemetery was founded and established by John Faubion (1776-1869). Bethel Baptist Church currently maintains the Faubion grounds. The cemetery is at Latitude 35.9865 north, Longitude 83.0688 west, with an elevation of 1316 feet.

On January 24, 1843, William Bryson Wall married Louisa C. Hudson (October 25, 1825-1900) in Parrottsville, NC. He was 21 and she was 17. Louisa was born in Cocke County. Her parents were the Rev. William B. Hudson (1802-1872) and Vashti Parrott (1803-1834), who has his first wife.

Bernardo, Diana Blakemore, Todd Brackett, Bonnie Breniser, Steve Briley, Shara Brungard, Chris Bursk, Janel Cahill, Rich Caliar, James Campanelli, Jay Claybaugh, Dave Cleveland, Mike Conroy, Craig Curren, Kevin Davis, Tim DeClaire, Jennifer Devine, Steve Devinney, Jim Dingemanse, Neil Do, John Doyle, Brian Drack, George Eanes, Craig East, John Farrell, Kevin Fox, Kyle Friel, Jenifer Fronk-Bixby, Bill Gerding, Barbara Glazer, Steve Gould, Marcos Hacker, Paxton Hare, Matt Heine, Julie Hobbs, Andrew Holm, Thomas Jenkins, Ted Kaufman, Rebecca Kerr-Morley, Carol Ketcherside, Dennis Kim, Margaret Knepper, John Knouse, Janet Kyriakides, Sue Lazar, Kelly Le, Chip Lawson, Donna Macdonald, Jon Maucher, Jim McGhan, Corinne McNeely, Ben Milette, Cliff Miller, Richard Miller, Josie Moreno, Rebecca Morley, Christine Mydlo, Lilo Newberry, Ed Norris, David Ogilbee, Daniel Papa, Mike Patch, John Pearce, Rick Pemble, Bill Pepper (died 2015), Barbie Perez, Mike Pippett, Scott Potter, Corwyn Prater, Amanda Pulawski, Ed Quillan, Cathy Rennert, Mike Reynolds, Dave Rochester, Izzy Rodriguez, Rob Ruhge, Carl Sandberg, Eric Schank, Shawn Sexton, Brian Shirey, Rick Simonian, Mike Simms, Ken Smith, Neil Stein, Craig Stephens, Donna Stewart, Scot Stewart, Joe Tallet, Kathi Tarducci, Sandy Terry, Noel Thomas, Paul Tomasura, Vic Treadwell, Uu Awa, Fred Watson, Gina Watson, Charles Westerfield, Shelley White, Kathy Wilder, Mike Zeitfuss, and Paul Zimski.

In 1999, I was awarded the Outstanding Individual Contribution Engineering Award at Harris for my computer security work and the security tools I created.

In 1999, I became a Board Member of the Mitre Computer Vulnerabilities and Exposures (CVE) Board.

In 2000, I gave computer security lectures and demos at Fort Huachuca, Camp Robinson in Little Rock, Fort Belvoir, Fort Meade, Orlando SANS Conference, Infosec 2000 in Buena Vista (Florida), Technet 2000 AFCEA Conference in Ottawa, US Army Garrison Heidelberg, Supercomm in Atlanta, Schriever AFB in Colorado Springs, SPAWAR in San Diego, on board the USS Coronado, and Raytheon in St. Petersburg, Florida.

In 2001, I gave computer security lectures and demos at Infosec 2100 at Buena Vista, various computer security magazine publishers in Boston, Baltimore SANS Conference, AFCEA at Patrick AFB, Dynergy and Avnet in Houston, and NAVCIRT in Norfolk.

In 2002, I gave computer security lectures and demos at Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) in Hagerstown, Army CERT in Alexandria, Virginia, Information Systems Security Association (ISSA) in Orlando, computer security company in Long Beach, Veterans Administration in Los Angeles and Martinsburg, WV, Rome Labs at Griffiss AFB, SecureInfo in San Antonio, and STRATCOM at Offutt AFB.

In 2003, I gave computer security lectures and demos at AFCEA trade show in San Diego, SPAWAR in San Diego, DISA and the VA in Washington DC, Army Material Command in College Park, Hewlett Packard in Baltimore, and the VA in Silver Spring, MD.

In 2004, I gave computer security lectures and demos at the VA in Chicago, RSA Conference in San Francisco, and DISA at Kelly AFB.

In 2005, I won a Harris community volunteer award for my work in the local schools, teaching tennis and chess to over 100 students during the year.

On June 1, 2005, James Clarence Brown died of a heart attack. (source: The Daily Chronicle, June 6, 2005)

In 2006, Harris sold the STAT product to Lumension (Patchlink) and I transitioned to working on Harris contracts that needed computer security inputs.

In 2007, I developed information assurance security requirements for FP&L digital meters, National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA), Algeria Border Security, Health Portal Security, ADS-B, Boeing network processors, GBS/DECC, GPS-OCX, Army Node Transit Case, Wind River multilevel security (MLS), and the Netherlands Compatriot Missile Program.

In 2008, I developed information assurance security requirements for IBM High Assurance Platform (HAP), GBS Space Fence, Common Avionics Terminal (CAT), F-22 Crypto Module, FP&L wireless, Air Force Red Flag testing range at Eielson AFB in Alaska, Consolidated Afloat Networks Enterprise Services (CANES), United Arab Emirates (UAE) Integrated Management System, and Advanced Metering Infrastructure (AMI).

In 2009, I developed information assurance security requirements for the Commercial Broadcast Satellite Program (CBSP), the Weather Radio Improvement Program (WRIP), Army Corps of Engineers SCADA, Bidirectional Health Information Exchange (BHIE), Alaska Satellite Telecommunications Infrastructure, and the Boeing Open System Architecture network interface card.

On October 3, 2009, I took and passed the Certified Information Systems Security Profession (CISSP) test in Orlando.

In 2010, I wrote the System Security Plan (SSP) for the National Weather System (NWS) WRIP program and developed information assurance security requirements for the Future COMSATCOM Services Acquisition (FCSA) program, CapRock Secure Network Operations Center (NOC), and the FP&L secure wireless network.

In 2011, I developed information assurance security requirements for the NASA Space Network Ground Segment Sustainment (SGSS) program, the Ocean Net buoy system, and the Advanced Offshore Communications Network.

In 2012, I developed information assurance security requirements for commercial cruise ships, Harris Falcon secure radios, Harris Small Secure Data Link (SSDL), and the NOAA GOES-R ground and antenna system.

In 2013, I wrote the security configuration and hardening guides for Microsoft Windows, Linux, and QNX and hardened all the systems for GOES-R at the NOAA Satellite Operations Facility (NSOF) at Suitland, Maryland and the NOAA Wallops Command and Data Acquisition Station (WCDAS) at Wallops Island. I was responsible for IT security and common services on the GOES-R antenna program, used by NOAA. Installed a variety of security products and agents (Tripwire, IBM Tivoli Monitoring, MS Active Directory, Trendmicro and ESET AV, splunk, NitroSecurity, Snare, TSL, arp, Opentext NFS, bitvise, TSL, TAD4D, SCAP, drivers, etc) on Linux, QNX, and Windows operating systems at NSOF and WCDAS (made over 40 trips to sites). I used Nessus scanner and other tools on all devices and hosts. I hardened all systems according to DISA STIGS. My co-workers included: Mary Austin, John Bounds, Gary Briand, Dave Brozyna, Steve Campbell, Dan Davidson, Todd Ellis, Bob Esposito, Andy Gregory, Ed Hollar, Greg Hughes, Greg Johnson, Ken Lamm, Frank Lombardo, Christy Marzec, Drakos McGuire, Carl McNutt, Frank Menzer, Steve Nelson, Craig Nielson, Charley Obenschain, Bill Parros, Joshua Porche, Richard Reynolds, Steve Ritter, Larry Robbins, Tracey Smith, Tim Spain, Francisco Torres, Angie Walker, Ginger Weingard, and James Yelton.

On October 5, 2013, my uncle, Del Thompson (1925-2013) died.

On January 18, 2014, Betty Wall Thompson (1921-2014) died.

In 2014, I developed information assurance security requirements for the NWS Geostationary Weather Satellite Antenna System (GWSAS) and the UAE Land Tactical System.

In 2015, I developed information assurance security requirements for Advanced Weather Interactive Processing System (AWIPS).

In June 2015, I travelled to Abu Dhabi, UAE for several months and developed information assurance security requirements for the Emirates Command & Control system \(ECCS\) Land Tactical System (ELTS). My co-workers were: Justin Bellomy, Stuart Beltson, Jeff Chauncy, Wes Covell, Marty Durham, Fran Gumphre, Rob Huggins, John Kisor, Mike Leblanc, Ray Lentz, Gary Matthews, James McSorley, Jared Moore, Rod Nelson, Francis Neven, Sean O'Toole, Adam Petrycki, Jim Reis, Rooster Ryan, Skip Shaffer, Chris Stewart, Martin Walter, Johnathan Warren, Matt Witmer, and David Wood.

In 2016, I developed information assurance security requirements for IPv6 products, thin clients, Information Technology (IT) shelters, and operational centers for NOAA GOES-R.

In 2017, I assisted in the penetration testing of the NOAA GOES-R programs, writing the rules of engagement, gathering security artifacts, and completing the hardware, software, and firmware inventory for the program. I authored the GOES-R Configuration Management Plan and the System Security Plan.

In 2018, I was promoted to Senior Scientist at Harris and was involved in the information assurance security requirements for the GOES-R network devices.
